WORK RELEASE UPDATES:

The Work Release Facility currently houses 44 residents, a 47% increase including 34 males and 10 females, and is operating at 85% of overall capacity, an increase from last month's occupancy levels. The male dorm is operating at 85% capacity, a 49% increase, while the female dorm is operating at 83% capacity, a 43% increase from July.

AUGUST OVERVIEW:

In August, Community Corrections served 179 clients. This included 56 clients participating in the Work Release Program and 123 clients supervised through the Home Detention/Electronic Monitoring Program, accounting for a combined 5,002 days supervised. In addition, 24 clients were transferred to other jurisdictions for supervision.

The average daily population was 31 in Work Release and 128 in Home Detention, reflecting continued reliance on community-based supervision as an alternative to post-conviction incarceration.

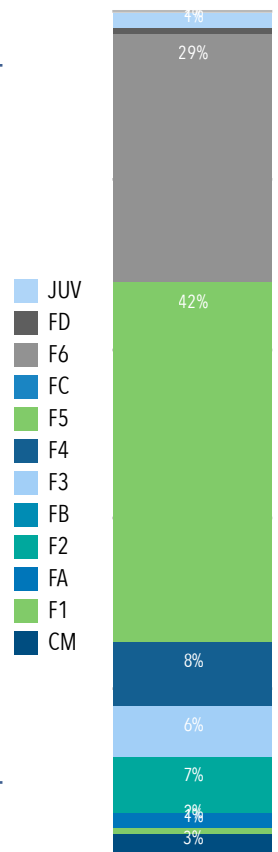

The department received 38 new clients in August.

- 16 Level 6 Felonies
- 15 High Level Felonies (Lvl 5 & Above)
- 4 Criminal Misdemeanors
- 2 Juvenile GPS Supervision

This month, 19 clients successfully completed Community Corrections supervision, a 32% decrease, demonstrating continued progress toward successful reintegration into the community. Conversely, 10 clients were returned to the Cass or Pulaski County Jail on alleged program violations. Of those individuals, 7 remain detained in the Cass or Pulaski County Jail pending court disposition.
